WHAT IS A FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE?

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is an important document that outlines the types of products and services that each of the licensed entities listed on page 4 are authorised to provide under each of their Australian Financial Services (AFS) licences. Please refer to the table of licensed entities displayed on page 4 for information about these products and services.

This FSG is designed to assist you in deciding whether to use the services offered by the licensed entities listed on page 4.

In this FSG, ‘we,’ ‘our,’ or ‘us’ refers to the entities listed on page 4.

The purpose of this FSG is to provide you with information, prior to the financial service being provided, about:

- who we are and how we can be contacted
- what services and products we are authorised to provide to you under each of our AFS licences
- how we, and any other relevant parties, are paid
- our internal and external dispute resolution procedures and how you can access them
- how you can give us instructions.

If you choose to use our services or you are issued with one of our products or one of our products is recommended to you, you may also receive a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). Each PDS contains information about a particular product or service and will assist you in making an informed decision about that product or service. The PDS will include information about matters such as terms and conditions of the product or service, associated costs and any significant benefits and risks.
